Office Action Summary

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-3, 5-7, 13, 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Walker '467.

Walker et al Figure 7 discloses a method whereby a caller places a call to an agent of a call center seeking product information, col. 1, line 65, at step 100. At step 102 caller information regarding the call is input to ACD 102, col. 5, lines 53-54. Once the call information has been entered by ACD into the database 36, step 104 determines whether an appropriate agent is available to answer the call, col. 5, lines 60-62. if no agent is available to answer the call the call is placed into a holding queue at step 108 and an IVR will play a message asking the caller if (s)he would like to monitor an on-going call, an archived call, or participate in a chat room. This meets applicant's limitation in claims 1 & 13 of using the IVR "only if" an appropriate agent is unavailable.

Claims 4 & 14 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 18-21 are allowed. Walker et al fail to show "2' menus being offered to the caller. Walker only discloses one menu.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
